GENE LEVINE – RENAISSANCE MAN	1
ACCUMULATING STREET SMARTS AND AUTODIDACTIC KNOWLEDGE AND WISDOM	16

ORIGINAL MISSION - 1959

With no more than a second-grade education, my father was the wisest man I would ever know. Using his relative wisdom, he taught and encouraged me— an always-sick asthmatic child—to me—to always try to follow the “Golden Rule;” never stop developing my knowledge, skills, and abilities, to succeed financially, to comfortably face and overcome life’s challenges, and someday start my own business.

AUTODIDACTIC PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE

Retired founder and CEO, Gene Levine Associates, (“GLA”), A management consulting, life coach and cognitive advisor, Industrial Engineering organization, Founded in 1965. .

A prolific published writer, Mr. Levine has authored over 77 management papers and 17 books and training manuals, including the classic best sellers, “How to Attract, Hold and Motivate People to Work,” and “17 Key SUCCESS Factors.”

His articles, entitled “The Industry Advisor,” appeared in the most prestigious Bobbin magazine for the Sewn Products industry and trade journals. Reader surveys in these publications consistently revealed that Mr. Levine's articles were their most widely read articles.

He is a sought-after business and computer seminar leader (over 210 highly attended seminars to date with attendees giving him a consistent presentation rating of A+). Mr. Levine is listed in “Who’s Who in America’s Speakers” confirming his ability as a dynamic and effective teacher and motivator.”
